ICFF is organized by the Turkish American Cultural Association of Washington, a IRS 501(c)(3) certified non-profit organization.

International Children's Friendship Festival

- Earn community service hours
- Learn about different cultures
- Make new friends

Join the organization committee of the fastest growing cultural festival in the Northwest: International Children's Friendship Festival (ICFF). ICFF is the premier children's cultural festival in the Pacific Northwest.

Up until now, we had 67 countries/communities in the Greater Seattle area participated at the ICFF and we are proud to celebrate our 10th anniversary in 2019.

Children's groups representing more than 30 countries around the world will perform unique dances, songs and musical performances. Colorful cultural displays representing different countries, games and activities for children from all over the world, arts and crafts, face painting and many more!
